Mayor Lula Davis-Holmes in Partnership with Councilman Cedric Hick, SouthBay Pavilion and Carson's Cultural Arts Foundation to Host a Back-to-School Backpack Giveaway for Carson Residence.

Carson, California – July 24th –Mayor Lula Davis-Holmes and Councilman Hicks is delighted to announce an exciting initiative aimed at supporting the education and well-being of the youth in Carson's vibrant community. On August 12, from 2:00 PM, Mayor Holmes and Councilman Hicks will be hosting a Back-to-School Backpack Giveaway event at the Center Court of South Bay Pavilion Mall, located at 20700 Avalon Blvd. Carson, CA 90746.

The Back-to-School Backpack Giveaway is a significant endeavor that aims to ensure children in Carson have the necessary tools and resources to embark on a successful academic year. Recognizing the importance of education and the challenges that many families face in providing essential school supplies, Mayor Davis-Holmes and Councilman Hicks is committed to making a positive impact on the lives of local children.

During the event, Mayor Davis-Holmes and Councilman Hicks will personally hand out backpacks filled with essential school supplies to all attending children. The backpacks have been thoughtfully prepared to include fundamental materials to equip students for their educational journey.

Mayor Davis-Holmes expressed her enthusiasm for the initiative, stating, "Education is the cornerstone of our community's future, and every child deserves the opportunity to learn and grow without facing barriers. By providing these backpacks, we hope to alleviate some of the burden on families and inspire our young minds to embrace learning with confidence."

The Back-to-School Backpack Giveaway is a testament to Mayor Davis-Holmes and Councilman Hicks unwavering dedication to the welfare and development of youth. It also reflects her commitment to fostering a community that values education, inclusivity, and support for families from all walks of life.

Members of the media, community leaders, and residents are encouraged to join Mayor Davis-Holmes and Councilman Hicks at the South Bay Pavilion Mall on August 12, from 2:00 PM to witness the joy and excitement as children receive their backpacks in preparation for the upcoming school year.
